EMERGENCY UNOPPOSED MOTION CONCERNING JURY QUESTIONNAIRE

Comes now the United States and hereby files this Emergency Unopposed Motion Concerning Jury Questionnaires, and in support thereof states as follows:

1. The undersigned was informed that the addresses, telephone numbers and zip codes of the jurors may be found in connection with responses to the jury questionnaire forms. This information was not among the listed items of information on the draft juror questionnaire form that the undersigned had reviewed. Rather the form itself only requested information concerning what general area or city in Miami-Dade county in which the juror lived.

2. The availability of specific telephone numbers and addresses of jurors could lead to the possibility of inappropriate contact with the jurors, particularly considering the recent instance of bribery of a sitting juror. Consequently, this information should be removed from the information supplied to all counsel for all parties.

3. The undersigned has discussed this with Donald Bierman, Esq, who agreed that the addresses, telephone numbers and zip codes of the potential jurors should be removed from copies provided to all counsel. Mr. Bierman has been acting as lead counsel concerning the juror questionnaire form.

WHEREFORE, the United States moves that all information concerning the name, address and zip code of any potential juror be removed from any documentation supplied to all counsel.

Respectfully submitted,
GUY A. LEWIS
UNITED STATES ATTORNEY
